

25 Days of Summer Psalm Reading

Book One: Psalm 1, 2, 14, 22, 32

Book Two: Psalm 42, 43, 50, 52, 72

Book Three: Psalm 73, 74, 77, 78, 80

Book Four: Psalm 90, 91, 100, 101, 103

Book Five: Psalm 107, 109, 110, 127, 150

Further Study: WonderFull by Marty Mackowski

“Lord open my eyes that I might see wonderful things in your Word” (Psalm 119:18).

Read the Psalm: Underline words or phrases that seem extra important. Circle words that express an attribute of God to help answer: “What is God like?” or “Who is God?”

Journal the Psalm: Write your answer or share your thoughts with friends/family.

- 1. What did you find interesting about this Psalm?
- 2. What did you find confusing or what questions do you want answered?
- 3. What do you think the Psalm teaches us about people?
- 4. What does this Psalm teach us about God’s character?
- 5. What is Jesus teaching you from this Psalm?

Pray the Psalm: Write out your praise. For example, “Father God, you are....”

Draw the Psalm: Draw a picture to help remember what you learned.

Sing the Psalm: <https://www.cornerroommusic.com/psalm-songs-volume-i>